

PRESS RELEASE:

Autumn Country Market 2019

On Sunday 8th September the much-loved Autumn Country Market will showcase the regions' best artisan crafts, rural food producers, demonstrations and glorious gardens.

Open from 11am-4pm in the beautiful 17th century cobbled courtyard and across the main lawn, over 60 stalls will be showcasing the best our region has to offer. Craft stalls include textiles from Ottily and Nina Allen, glass art from AB Glass and Gemini Glass and personalised prints, cards and gifts from Fitzjohn & Noble. There will also be a variety of delicious produce stalls including cakes, jams and teas. We're pleased to welcome award-winning Lavinton Lamb and Bickertons Fine Foods as well as The Teaspoon Tea Company and Wilsford's Fudge.

The day is much more than just shopping, the beautiful surroundings of these famous gardens make for the perfect start to autumn. Demonstrators fascinate young and old alike with beekeeping and botanical painting and we're excited to welcome artist, Val Littlewood who will be launching her wonderful 'Pig Books' at the show. New this year will be a display by Flowers from the Farm, discover the beauty of British scented flowers and perhaps treat yourself to a posy! Come and make friends with the Alpacas from Chestnut Farm or listen to the wonderful steel band while you stop for afternoon tea in the tea room. The gift shop will be open and a variety of plants will be for sale. We're thrilled to welcome back the beautiful vintage 1904 Darracq motorcar which will be on display in front of the Gatehouse Lodge.

Ursula Cholmeley, Gardening Director at Easton Walled Gardens commented:

"Our Autumn Country Market has always been such a popular event. We take pride in supporting our local artists, craftsmen and producers and what better way to share it with the local community and beyond? It really is a great day out for all the family. We saw record visitor numbers last year and anticipate that this year will be no different. We look forward to welcoming lots of visitors to the gardens."

The Autumn Country Market is on Sunday 8th September from 11am-4pm, normal entry applies: Adult: £7.70
Children: £3.50
