

PRESS RELEASE:

Meet Celebrity TV Antiques Expert, Charles Hanson.

Antiques Valuation Day

Thursday 3rd October

TV's Charles Hanson, best known for his charmingly enthusiastic manner of auctioneering on the BBC shows Flog It!, The Antiques Road Trip and Celebrity Antiques Road Trip and Bargain Hunt will be coming to Easton Walled Gardens with his specialist valuation team including:

Kate Bliss - antique and modern jewellery, Jim Spencer - Head of Books, Maps and Adrian Rathbone - Fine Art, Paintings and Watches.

Join us for an exciting opportunity to find out more about a beloved collectable, unusual antique or family heirloom valued by a specialist team of valuers sharing their knowledge and expertise.

This is a ticket only event and morning or afternoon valuation sessions are bookable in advance. Your ticket price includes admission to the gardens, refreshments, valuation of one small item and a talk by Charles Hanson with a Q&A session to finish. All proceeds will be donated to the garden charity, Perennial, the UK's only charity dedicated to helping people who work in horticulture when times get tough. Perennial offer free and confidential advice, support and financial assistance to people of all ages working in, or retired from horticulture.

Tickets are £35 per person. Limited places available. Book your tickets here:

About Easton Walled Gardens: Ursula Cholmeley has restored this ancient 12-acre garden from a wilderness into one of the UK's leading garden attractions. The gardens include meadows, roses, sweet peas, spring bulbs and shrubs, cutflower and vegetable gardens. The emphasis is firmly on horticulture although the cakes are pretty good too! The gardens feature regularly in the national press as an excellent example of horticultural innovation, a visit to Easton Walled Gardens will exceed expectations.
